Our School

Thank you for your interest in working at our school. I hope that the information below will help to give you a good understanding of the school and our values, and that you can see yourself contributing to our continued success.

Cardinal Heenan Catholic High School is a very successful 11-16 school in Leeds. We are heavily oversubscribed in applications each year demonstrating our reputation in the wider community. Our students come from across Leeds, attracting a diverse range of socio-economic backgrounds – we are proud to be a truly comprehensive Catholic school. At Cardinal Heenan we have a strong focus on the personal development of all of our students and encourage in everyone a desire to achieve to their full potential in all areas of school life - spiritual, academic, creative, physical and emotional. Whilst valuing and achieving academic excellence through strong academic, vocational and extra-curricular programmes, it is equally important to us that students are able to develop into well-rounded, happy, capable, tolerant, compassionate people who recognise their self-worth and strive to be the best person that they can be.

We have an incredible staff team at Cardinal Heenan and colleagues at every level are encouraged to develop their own practice and experience. We are fully committed to developing staff and provide every opportunity for appropriate and effective CPD. The successful candidate will be joining a school that has a happy, friendly and committed staff, where each member of staff is supported and encouraged to develop professionally. We have excellent links with our local schools and work well together to support the education of the young people in Leeds. We have particular links with the Catholic schools and Academies, colleges and university in Leeds and have a commitment to develop collaborative working through such networks. Our school is a happy and enjoyable place to work. Colleagues at all levels are supportive and our students are wonderful.

This appointment comes at an exciting time for the technology department. We are lucky to have a fantastic team of specialist teachers, with a range of experience, who all share an absolute commitment to providing the best possible learning experiences for our children. All of our teaching staff have their own specialist teaching rooms which are well resourced and benefit from the support, guidance and care which is abundant within the team. We are looking for a team player and subject specialist, who has a love for their subject area and a desire to inspire and connect students to the subject. We will appoint a teacher who is flexible and supportive and has an ambition to help make the technology department and our school even better.

I hope that this has given you a brief insight into our school community, but please visit our website for further details of what our school offers with links to our Ofsted report, Diocese of Leeds report and school prospectus. If, following your research, you have any questions about our school or you would like to visit the school, please contact Angela Fieldhouse (afe@cardinalheenan.com).

Applications should be emailed to: recruitment@cardinalheenan.com by 9am on 7 January.

Thank you once again for taking the time to apply for this post and good luck.

Dominic Kelly

Headteacher

Teacher of Food Technology

Maternity Leave Cover starting February 2025

Full Time—Scale: MPS/UPS

Our school is a happy school, where relationships are positive, respect is prevalent and expectations are high. We challenge all members of our school community to “be kind, try your best and follow the rules” – our students are our greatest asset and never fail to inspire and impress staff and visitors. Staff have high expectations of all students, whatever their starting point; students have the drive and ambition to meet these expectations. Our GCSE results in 2024 were once again amongst the highest in Leeds, which is testament to the way that our students and staff work together to create a positive, ambitious and caring learning environment. We continue to be fully staffed in all areas of specialist teaching.

Governors are seeking to appoint an ambitious, enthusiastic and highly motivated teacher to join our high achieving school as a Teacher of Food Technology to cover a maternity leave. You will work within our very successful Technology Department who work collaboratively to deliver the best possible learning experiences for our students. If you have a natural passion and enthusiasm for food technology and a strong desire to help all students reach their full potential, then we would like to hear from you.

We are eager to hear from you if you are:

- An excellent practitioner who believes that all students can achieve.
- Able to excel in an environment where students genuinely enjoy school and have a love of learning.
- Ambitious for yourself and our students, and able to thrive in our supportive, collaborative environment.
- Somebody who wants to work in a happy school where students and staff work together to “...build on the best traditions that we have inherited...”

In return for your hard work, we offer a rewarding and exciting environment where students are keen to learn and staff are valued and cared for. Willingness to support the Catholic ethos of the school is essential.

Further details and our Catholic Education Service application form is available from the school website (www.cardinalheenan.com). Visits to school are encouraged. If you would like to arrange a visit or would like any further information about the role or department, please email recruitment@cardinalheenan.com.

Please note that covering letters are not required and will not be used as part of the shortlisting or selection process. There is a section of the application form where candidates can offer further information to support their application. This can take the form of a letter of no more than two sides of A4.

Closing date: Tuesday 7 January at 9:00am

It is intended that interviews will take place as soon as possible after the closing date.

We reserve the right to close this vacancy early if we receive sufficient applications for the role. Therefore, if you are interested, please submit your application as early as possible.

Our school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and we expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. An Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) disclosure will be sought, along with other relevant pre-employment checks, for the successful applicant.

We promote diversity and want a workforce which reflects the population of Leeds.

Safer Recruitment

Cardinal Heenan is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and we expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

Application Form

If you wish to apply for the vacancy, please complete our Catholic Education Service application form which is on the school website (www.cardinalheenan.com).

References

Please include the contact details of 2 referees on your application form.

In accordance with Keeping Children Safe in Education we will obtain and scrutinise references on all short-listed candidates, where possible prior to interview.

If currently employed, one reference must be from your current manager and the other from the establishment before that. The reference for school based staff must be the Headteacher.

Referees will be asked for information about:

- all disciplinary offences (including those where the penalty is “time expired” if related to children) and
- all child protection allegations including the outcome of any child protection investigations.

Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Check

Before any offer of employment can be confirmed a satisfactory enhanced DBS check must be completed.

Under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) order 1975 (as amended in 2013 and 2020), all roles at our school are classed as regulated activity and as such an enhanced DBS check will be carried out.

We will also conduct checks against the DfE Barred List and conduct a check to see if a Prohibition Order issued by the Secretary of State for Education or GTCE sanction exists for roles in the teaching profession.

Online Checks

Online checks will be carried out for all shortlisted candidates to determine if there is any information in the public domain that may impact on their suitability to work in a professional role with children.

The online check will be conducted for shortlisted candidates before interview, where possible, so that any issues or concerns can be explored further with the candidate at interview.

The online check will only consider material that is relevant to their role working with children, their professional reputation or the reputation of the school.

Right to Work in the UK

All applicants will be asked for verification of their identity and proof that they are entitled to live and work in the United Kingdom. Original documentation will be required.

Our Commitment to Wellbeing

The term “wellbeing” can be used to describe our holistic health, including our physical, mental and emotional health. When we have good levels of wellbeing we feel that life is in balance and that we can generally cope well. We feel motivated and engaged and that we can “bounce back” from life’s challenges.

(Supporting staff wellbeing in schools, Anna Freud Foundation, 2023)

At Cardinal Heenan Catholic High School our Catholic identity drives our mission to look after our staff body and we understand that happy, healthy staff add so much to the communities that they so proudly serve. Staff are proud to work at this school. We are also acutely aware of the challenges existing across the profession, and we see it as our duty to support our colleagues. We have a strong commitment to wellbeing.

Our wellbeing initiatives include:

Catholic Life

- A strong Chaplaincy tradition so that all staff can feel part of the Catholic Community.
- Voluntary staff prayer every Friday morning.
- Fortnightly voluntary Masses held in school for both staff and students.
- Staff have access to Catholic Care support services.

Staff Professional Development

- A clearly planned and structured internal CPD provision that develops teaching and support staff.
- Bespoke support for individual career progression.
- All new initiatives are workload assessed.
- Fully supportive of external CPD opportunities for all staff.
- A staff wellbeing library where staff can borrow books and resources to support their wellbeing.

Workload

- Teaching ratio of 83% to support staff development.
- Careful consideration given to staff timetables.

Communication

- A visible and approachable SLT who all hold wellbeing as a key value for the whole school community.
- Clear communication with staff in the form of a weekly staff briefing and bulletin.
- Wellbeing drop in’s so that staff can share views.
- Supervision support for support staff.
- A staffroom committee which meets with the headteacher regularly.
- Regular staff surveys.
- Staff suggestion box.
- Solution Circles for staff to share their concerns and support other staff.
- Staff have access to Leeds City Council Employee Assistance Service.

Community

- A welcoming, supportive and active staffroom.
- Staff activities including weekly HIIT, staff football, cake Friday.
- Fair and open opportunities for all to attend trips and events.
- Whole school staff recognition in the form of weekly “staff star”.
- Staff gratitude slips.

Inspiring excellence by encouraging every individual to be the person God calls them to be.

Our Mission Statement

John Carmel Heenan (1905-1975) was Bishop of Leeds, Archbishop of Liverpool and Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster. This school is a living tribute to a very faithful servant of God. We are proud to bear his name.

We wear the word Veritas (Truth) on our school blazers in memory of St Thomas Aquinas. He lived a life of prayer and study which led him to the Dominican Order, whose motto is “Veritas” or “Truth”. He sought truth wherever it could be found and burned with the desire to know the one truth, God, which gives meaning to all truths.

The Catholic Christian community at Cardinal Heenan endeavours to help students to know and build a relationship with Jesus Christ and to live the Catholic faith through prayer, sacraments and service. We are committed to making learning challenging and enjoyable for all so that we will secure the best outcomes and remain lifelong learners who are committed to seeking truth.

We strive to help all to learn and grow, treating one another with respect and generosity, whilst supporting parents as the first and most important educators of our children. Our aim is to inspire excellence by encouraging every individual to be the person that God calls us to be, in preparation for this life and the life to come.
